This week we celebrate a spiritual master! Not only is St. Ignatius Loyola, the founder of the Jesuits, but the legacy of his life of prayer -- now called Ignatian spirituality -- inspired believers the world over. Injured as a young soldier, Ignatius spent his time in recovery reading the lives of the saints. They inspired his soul to holy heroism, changing his life forever. Ignatius gathered a group of friends who also desired to be "contemplatives in action," finding God in all circumstances. This became the Jesuits -- a great missionary and teaching order. Ignatius himself was constantly attuned to his own inner promptings. This self-knowledge -- open to the movements of the Holy Spirit -- led him to be an incredibly astute spiritual director. For Ignatius, recognizing God as the first principle of one's life determined everything. How has God changed you?

ENCYCLICAL LETTER ECCLESIA DE EUCHARISTIA OF HIS HOLINESS POPE JOHN PAUL II TO THE BISHOPS PRIESTS AND DEACONS MEN AND WOMEN IN THE CONSECRATED LIFE AND ALL THE LAY FAITHFUL ON THE EUCHARIST IN ITS RELATIONSHIP TO THE CHURCH

CONCLUSION

59. Ave, verum corpus natum de Maria Virgine! Several years ago I celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of my priesthood. Today I have the grace of offering the Church this Encyclical on the Eucharist on the Holy Thursday which falls during the twenty-fifth year of my Petrine ministry. As I do so, my heart is filled with gratitude. For over a half century, every day, beginning on 2 November 1946, when I celebrated my first Mass in the Crypt of Saint Leonard in Wawel Cathedral in Krakow, my eyes have gazed in recollection upon the host and the chalice, where time and space in some way "merge" and the drama of Golgotha is re-presented in a living way, thus revealing its mysterious "contemporaneity". Each day my faith has been able to recognize in the consecrated bread and wine the divine Wayfarer who joined the two disciples on the road to Emmaus and opened their eyes to the light and their hearts to new hope (cf. Lk 24:13-35).

KISSING THE ALTAR AT MASS

Question:

Why do priests kiss the altar at the start of Mass?

Answer:

Our churches and chapels are filled with symbols. We might think of the more common symbols (like the crucifix) as well as major symbols (such as the paschal candle). But there are some things that we can take for granted in our sacred spaces, because unfortunately, they seem to just be part of the building, including three of the main symbols of our liturgy: the ambo, the chair for the priest celebrant, and the altar. These three objects are placed in a specially designated area called the sanctuary. Although each of these objects is sacred because of the role they play in our worship, the altar holds a special place. In a document containing the rules and instructions for the Mass — the “General Instruction of the Roman Missal” — we read: “The altar on which the Sacrifice of the Cross is made present under sacramental signs is also the table of the Lord to which the People of God is called together to participate in the Mass, as well as the center of the thanksgiving that is accomplished throughout the Eucharist” (no. 296). One of the ways that we recognize the importance of the altar is when the priest and deacon kiss the altar at the beginning of Mass. Kissing is an ancient act of devotion. Remember, we also kiss the cross on Good Friday, and the deacon or priest kisses the “Book of the Gospels” after the Gospel is proclaimed. This act of devotion reminds us that the altar is a symbol of Jesus, the “living stone” (see 1 Peter 2:4), the foundation stone of our faith. It is a symbol gesture, but it is a powerful reminder of the One on whom our faith is built and in whose name we gather as the “household of faith” (see Galatians 6:10).

17th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME — MEDITATION —

Our culture seems more polarized and divided than ever. Into this wounded situation, our Catholic faith has a healing remedy to offer: the gift of wisdom. When the Lord offers to give King Solomon anything the monarch desires, he requests “an understanding heart” (1 Kings 3:9). In his polarized situation, the King doesn’t ask for power to defeat his enemies. He asks for a wise and understanding heart to judge right from wrong. This wisdom is elevated and fulfilled in Jesus who teaches us to bring forth “both the new and the old” (Matthew 13:52). In our fractured society, we Christians should stop pining for political power to crush our perceived enemies. That often just makes things worse. Rather, it’s much more useful to beg for the grace of true wisdom which transcends both sides of the aisle. This places us in a fresh position from which we can help our culture see what is true and good all across the ideological spectrum. Sometimes we’ll look like liberals (e.g., in our love for the poor and marginalized) and other times like conservatives (e.g., in our sexual ethics and views on religious freedom). Because this wisdom is free from ideological narrowness, it will help to heal these painful fractures. Lord Jesus, this week, pour into us your healing wisdom.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

Mt 13, 44-52

Ahora, el Señor usa para su enseñanza las parábolas tesoro, comerciante y red. Otras tres parábolas hermosas para aprender a trabajar por el Reino de los cielos. El comerciante encuentra el tesoro y compra todo el campo, pero antes, vende todo lo que tiene para obtener lo mejor. ¡El tesoro! Nuestro tesoro, actualmente, podría ser nuestra amistad con Dios, dejar todo por conservarla, sería el reto. El comerciante en perlas finas hace lo mismo. Nuestras perlas pueden ser la bondad y la justicia, el trabajo de servir con amor a los que nos rodean. La red que recoge toda clase de peces, podría ser no tener perjuicios contra nadie, no discriminar a la persona por su raza o apariencia. Ya que todos somos iguales ante Dios.

Veamos ahora que nos dice el papa Francisco en su catequesis: "El reino de los cielos es lo contrario de las cosas superfluas que ofrece el mundo, es lo contrario de una vida banal: es un tesoro que renueva la vida todos los días y la expande hacia horizontes más amplios. De hecho, quien ha encontrado este tesoro tiene un corazón creativo y buscador, que no repite, sino que inventa, trazando y recorriendo caminos nuevos, que nos llevan a amar a Dios, a amar a los otros, a amarnos verdadera-mente a nosotros mismos" (07/26/2020). Jesús nos advierte que al final de los tiempos seremos separados y habrá un destino eterno diferente. Ahora es el momento del cambio, de la conversión. Pon manos a la obra, no pierdas el tiempo.

III. LA EUCARISTÍA EN LA ECONOMÍA DE LA SALVACIÓN

LOS SIGNOS DEL PAN Y DEL VINO

En el corazón de la celebración de la Eucaristía se encuentran el pan y el vino que, por las palabras de Cristo y por la invocación del Espíritu Santo, se convierten en el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo. Fiel a la orden del Señor, la Iglesia continúa haciendo, en memoria de Él, hasta su retorno glorioso, lo que Él hizo la víspera de su pasión: "Tomó pan...", "tomó el cáliz lleno de vino...".

Carta Encíclica Evangelium Vitae del Sumo Pontífice Juan Pablo II a los Obispos a los Sacerdotes y Diáconos a los Religiosos a los Fieles Laicos y a todas las personas de buena voluntad sobre el valor y el carácter inviolable de la vida humana.

71. Para el futuro de la sociedad y el desarrollo de una sana democracia, urge pues descubrir de nuevo la existencia de valores humanos y morales esenciales y originarios, que derivan de la verdad misma del ser humano y expresan y tutelan la dignidad de la persona. Son valores, por tanto, que ningún individuo, ninguna mayoría y ningún Estado nunca pueden crear, modificar o destruir, sino que deben sólo reconocer, respetar y promover.

En este sentido, es necesario tener en cuenta los elementos fundamentales del conjunto de las relaciones entre ley civil y ley moral, tal como son propuestos por la Iglesia, pero que forman parte también del patrimonio de las grandes tradiciones jurídicas de la humanidad.
