According to tradition, Cecilia was born to a wealthy and prominent Roman family. Though she had consecrated her virginity to the Lord, she was married to a man named Valerian. Valerian would honor her vow if he too could see the angel. Cecilia told him he would see the angel if he was baptized, which he went to do immediately. When he returned to her, he saw the angel. Cecilia was targeted for her faith. Authorities attempted to suffocate by locking her in the bath in her home and overheating the room. They then sent in an executioner to behead her, but he faltered and was unable to complete his task, only succeeding in wounding her. She remained alive for three days before she died. Her body was exhumed twice, first by Pope Paschal I in 821, then by Cardinal Sfondrato in 1599. Both times her body was found incorrupt, the first saint to exhibit this extremity.

MYSTERIUM FIDEI ENCYCLICAL OF POPE PAUL VI ON THE HOLY EUCHARIST

SEPTEMBER 3, 1965

Relying on Revelation, Not Reason

22. It is only logical, then, for us to follow the magisterium of the Church as a guiding star in carrying on our investigations into this mystery, for the Divine Redeemer has entrusted the safeguarding and the explanation of the written or transmitted word of God to her. And we are convinced that "whatever has been preached and believed throughout the whole Church with true Catholic faith since the days of antiquity is true, even if it not be subject to rational investigation, and even if it not be explained in words." (9)

Proper Wording of Great Importance

23. But this is not enough. Once the integrity of the faith has been safeguarded, then it is time to guard the proper way of expressing it, lest our careless use of words give rise, God forbid, to false opinions regarding faith in the most sublime things. St. Augustine gives a stern warning about this when he takes up the matter of the different ways of speaking that are employed by the philosopher on the one hand and that ought to be used by Christians on the other. "The philosophers," he says, "use words freely, and they have no fear of offending religious listeners in dealing with subjects that are difficult to understand. But we have to speak in accordance with a fixed rule, so that a lack of restraint in speech on our part may not give rise to some irreverent opinion about the things represented by the words." (10)

WHAT REMAINS

When my grandfather died, my parents, siblings, and I were left with the question: what's to become of the house? Those four walls and a roof usually contain memories and objects. When they're left to you, you have to sift through them, the memories and the objects, and with each one you have to think: Is it worth it? Do I keep it? Will I need it? And slowly, painfully, you disassemble the physical existence of the person who lived here. You accept, with a pang, that most of it must be given away or discarded. You cry when you bag up the clothes to take to Goodwill. You can't even bear to look when they break the piano into a hundred pieces and throw it in a dumpster, realizing that no one wants or has a use for something that was once so precious. But when you come upon a rosary that was used so many times it has begun to fall apart, you don't even think twice before keeping it, and not because you need the rosary. You need what it means. You need what it reminds you of. When all is said and done, each of us will be called before our master to settle accounts, just as my grandfather was. "Where are the gifts I gave you?" he will ask us. "What have you done with the peace? What have you done with the love?" "You yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief at night." 1 Thessalonians 5:2

33ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME — Meditation —

When I was a kid, I hated playing Monopoly because my siblings and friends always seemed to win. But worse was how it happened. Scared to risk my fake money on buying properties, I'd hold on to it. My opponents hungrily bought up the various real estate squares on the board. Then, inevitably, my poor, low-equity self would land on their spots, pay them rent, and my money would drain to zero. It seemed so unfair. The rich get richer, and the poor get poorer. I had to learn that monopoly money is meant to be spent. I was scared to lose some of it. So, I lost all of it. How do we see what we possess? Jesus' parable about the talents is not really about economics but about the investability of everything he entrusts to us. How marvelous that everyone in the fable who places talents in the open market doubles their investment. The only one who doesn't is the man who fearfully buries his one talent. Jesus' success strategy for us seems to be, whatever we have, get it out of our possession. We have valuable things to invest — time, talents, treasure. The Lord invites us to be brave and even somewhat reckless, to give as much away as possible. If we give it away in the direction of love and truth, it will grow. If we hold on to it in fear, the little we have will be taken away. Let me challenge you this week: find something in your life you're holding on to, and risk it by giving it away. It won't double if you hold on to it.

CHAPTER ONE THE SACRAMENTS OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION

Article 1 THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM. VII. The Grace of Baptism.

An indelible spiritual mark . . .

1272 Incorporated into Christ by Baptism, the person baptized is configured to Christ. Baptism seals the Christian with the indelible spiritual mark (character) of his belonging to Christ. No sin can erase this mark, even if sin prevents Baptism from bearing the fruits of salvation.<sup>82</sup> Given once for all, Baptism cannot be repeated.

1273 Incorporated into the Church by Baptism, the faithful have received the sacramental character that consecrates them for Christian religious worship.<sup>83</sup> The baptismal seal enables and commits Christians to serve God by a vital participation in the holy liturgy of the Church and to exercise their baptismal priesthood by the witness of holy lives and practical charity.<sup>84</sup>

JERUSALEM CARVINGS

Bethlehem Carvings Group will be visiting St. Agnes on the weekend of December 3rd. They will be bringing a display of religious handmade olive wood carvings brought from Bethlehem. The Christians of the Holy Land have been suffering and continue living in hard economical situations. Many of them have fled the Holy Land, which decreased their population from 37% to 5%. Our mission is to help support these families by selling their religious carvings. Olivewood carvings are a part of a tradition handed down from generations. Please stop at their table and purchase a gift from the little town of Bethlehem.

MAUI WILDFIRES 2023 RELIEF, RECOVERY AND REBUILDING

33<sup>er</sup> Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

CLPi

19 de Noviembre, 2023

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

Mt 25, 14-30

Las tres lecturas de este domingo nos recuerdan que estamos al final del año litúrgico. La primera narra la belleza de una mujer hacendosa y trabajadora, la que con sus manos [ayuda a su esposo] y socorre al que está en desgracia. Pablo hace una invitación personal para vivir confiados en el encuentro definitivo con el Señor. “Todos ustedes son hijos de la luz e hijos del día: no somos de la noche ni de las tinieblas” (Tesalonicenses 5:3). El Evangelio hace hincapié en los talentos que Dios nos ha regalado, pues sobre ellos daremos cuenta a Dios. ¿Qué regalos he recibido de Dios? ¿Cómo los hago producir? Existe un regalo de Dios para todos y es universal, se llama amor.

Señor, ayúdame a hacer crecer los [dones] que me has dado. Que sepa compartir lo que soy y lo que tengo, que no sea egoísta, ni estéril en mis propósitos. También, ayúdame a ayudar a mi familia y amigos que han enterrado sus talentos por miedo a perder y equivocarse. “Todos hemos recibido de Dios un patrimonio como seres humanos, una riqueza humana, del tipo que sea. Y como discípulos de Cristo, también hemos recibido la fe, el Evangelio, el Espíritu Santo, los sacramentos, y tantas otras cosas. Estos dones hay que emplearlos para hacer el bien, el bien en esta vida, como servicio a Dios y a los hermanos” (Papa Francisco 11-15-2020). Recuerda esta frase: “Al atardecer de la vida, seremos examinados en el amor” San Juan de la Cruz.

Carta Encíclica Evangelium Vitae del Sumo Pontífice Juan Pablo II a los Obispos, a los Sacerdotes y Diáconos, a los Religiosos, a los Fieles Laicos y a todas las personas de buena voluntad sobre el valor y el carácter inviolable de la vida humana.

« Amarás a tu prójimo como a ti mismo »
(Lc 10, 27): « promueve » la vida

Por tanto, lo que todos debemos asegurar a nuestro prójimo es un servicio de amor, para que siempre se defienda y promueva su vida, especialmente cuando es más débil o está amenazada. Es una exigencia no sólo personal sino también social, que todos debemos cultivar, poniendo el respeto incondicional de la vida humana como fundamento de una sociedad renovada.

Se nos pide amar y respetar la vida de cada hombre y de cada mujer y trabajar con constancia y valor, para que se instaure finalmente en nuestro tiempo, marcado por tantos signos de muerte, na cultura nueva de la vida, fruto de la cultura de la verdad y del amor.
