The Church remembers St. Damien of Molokai on May 10. The Belgian priest sacrificed his life and health to become a spiritual father to the victims of leprosy quarantined on a Hawaiian island. Joseph de Veuser, who later took the name Damien in religious life, was born into a farming family in the Belgian town of Tremlo in 1840. During his youth he felt a calling to become a Catholic missionary. Damien's final vows to the congregation involved a dramatic ceremony in which his superiors draped him in the cloth that would be used to cover his coffin after death. The custom was meant to symbolize the young man's solemn commitment, and his identification with Christ's own death. During his ninth year of the priesthood, Father Damien responded to his bishop's call for priests to serve on the leper colony of Molokai. Molokai became a quarantine center for the victims. He died of leprosy during Holy Week, on April 15, 1889. St. Damien of Molokai was beatified in 1995. Pope Benedict XVI canonized him in 2009.

ENCYCLICAL LETTER ECCLESIA DE EUCHARISTIA OF HIS HOLINESS POPE JOHN PAUL II TO THE BISHOPS PRIESTS AND DEACONS MEN AND WOMEN IN THE CONSECRATED LIFE AND ALL THE LAY FAITHFUL ON THE EUCHARIST IN ITS RELATIONSHIP TO THE CHURCH

CHAPTER FIVE: THE DIGNITY OF THE EUCHARISTIC CELEBRATION

48. Like the woman who anointed Jesus in Bethany, the Church has feared no “extravagance”, devoting the best of her resources to expressing her wonder and adoration before the unsurpassable gift of the Eucharist. No less than the first disciples charged with preparing the “large upper room”, she has felt the need, down the centuries and in her encounters with different cultures, to celebrate the Eucharist in a setting worthy of so great a mystery. In the wake of Jesus' own words and actions, and building upon the ritual heritage of Judaism, the Christian liturgy was born. Could there ever be an adequate means of expressing the acceptance of that self-gift which the divine Bridegroom continually makes to his Bride, the Church, by bringing the Sacrifice offered once and for all on the Cross to successive generations of believers and thus becoming nourishment for all the faithful? Though the idea of a “banquet” naturally suggests familiarity, the Church has never yielded to the temptation to trivialize this “intimacy” with her Spouse by forgetting that he is also her Lord and that the “banquet” always remains a sacrificial banquet marked by the blood shed on Golgotha. The Eucharistic Banquet is truly a “sacred” banquet, in which the simplicity of the signs conceals the unfathomable holiness of God: O sacrum convivium, in quo Christus sumitur! The bread which is broken on our altars, offered to us as wayfarers along the paths of the world, is panis angelorum, the bread of angels, which cannot be approached except with the humility of the centurion in the Gospel: “Lord, I am not worthy to have you come under my roof” (Mt 8:8; Lk 7:6).

POPE FRANCIS, URBI ET ORBI, EASTER 2023

Comfort refugees, deportees, political prisoners, and migrants, especially those who are most vulnerable, as well as the victims of hunger, poverty, and the dire effects of the drug trade, human trafficking, and all other forms of slavery. Lord, inspire the leaders of nations to ensure that no man or woman may encounter discrimination and be violated in his or her dignity; that in full respect for human rights and democracy these social wounds may be healed; that the common good of the citizenry may be pursued always and solely; and that security and the conditions needed for dialogue and peaceful coexistence may be guaranteed.

Brothers, sisters, may we rediscover the enjoyment of the journey, quicken the heartbeat of hope and experience a foretaste of the beauty of heaven! Today, let us summon the energy to advance in goodness towards Goodness itself, which never disappoints. If, as one of the ancient Fathers once wrote, "the greatest sin is not to believe in the power of the resurrection" (SAINT ISAAC OF NINEVEH, Sermones Ascetici, I, 5), today let us believe and profess: "Christ is truly risen from the dead!" (Sequence). We believe in you, Lord Jesus. We believe that, with you, hope is reborn and the journey continues. May you, the Lord of life, encourage us on our journey and repeat to us, as you did to the disciples on the evening of Easter: "Peace be with you! Peace be with you! Peace be with you!" (Jn 19:21).

WITNESSES FOR JESUS

This journey of faith is not always easy. Sometimes the greatest wounds are those we suffer when family members and friends wander away from God and leave us behind. The faith they had when they were younger is now strained, or they see the daily walking with Jesus to be too difficult. For them, Jesus becomes what Peter wrote about when he described Jesus as the stone that causes people to stumble and the rock that makes them fall. Our journey is hard enough, but watching a loved one stumble and fall is heart-breaking. What are we to do in such a situation? Most importantly, we pray. We must realize that God is more powerful than us, and even if we can't make them see the truth, He can. Then we witness to the transformative power of Jesus by our own lives. We need to serve him in word and deed. We should let a joy of being a disciple enlighten our faces. Allow Jesus to work through us so that others may be drawn to him. Lastly, we must never lose hope. Many have walked long journeys alone only to find God far down the road. What will it take to bring someone to Christ? It might be an action, a word, or an emotion. We never know how certain people will be touched. That loved one is a gift from God in your life. Place them back in God's hands, and let Him pick them up if they have stumbled and fallen.

CHAPTER TWO THE SACRAMENTAL CELEBRATION OF THE PASCHAL MYSTERY

Article 2 LITURGICAL DIVERSITY AND THE UNITY OF THE MYSTERY

Liturgical traditions and the catholicity of the Church

1227 According to the Apostle Paul, the believer enters through Baptism into communion with Christ's death, is buried with him, and rises with him: Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life.²⁹ The baptized have "put on Christ."³⁰ Through the Holy Spirit, Baptism is a bath that purifies, justifies, and sanctifies.³¹

1228 Hence Baptism is a bath of water in which the "imperishable seed" of the Word of God produces its life-giving effect.³² St. Augustine says of Baptism: "The word is brought to the material element, and it becomes a sacrament."³³ —Catechism of the Catholic Church.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

Jn 14, 1-12

Tenemos un Padre que nos ama y nos espera siempre con amor, compasión y perdón. En este V Domingo de Pascua, Jesús nos dice que confiemos en Dios y confiemos en él: “En la casa de mi Padre hay muchas habitaciones. De no ser así, no les habría dicho que voy a prepararles un lugar” (Juan 14,1-2). Qué bonito se siente escuchar que Jesús nos tenga un lugar preparado, una habitación completa. Solo nos pide no perder la paz. También, nos muestra su profunda relación con su Padre del cielo, al que ahora regresa. En esta Pascua, Jesús desea que no perdamos la paz a pesar de todas las dificultades que enfrentamos. Ya se sabe el camino para llegar al cielo. No hay que buscar otros senderos: “Yo soy el Camino, la Verdad y la Vida”. (Juan 14,6). Señor Jesús, tú eres nuestro camino. Tú nos invitas a colaborar en el proyecto del Reino. Todos, como bautizados, estamos metidos en este trabajo de colaboración. ¿Cómo lo hago? ¿De qué forma colaboro? Es de diferentes maneras: la misión está en la familia, en la escuela, el trabajo y la sociedad. En Jesús está la respuesta, como camino, verdad y vida. Si de verdad hiciéramos vida estas palabras de Jesús, en lugar de guerra, habría paz, y en lugar de odio, habría perdón. En la Lectura de Pedro se nos invita a acercarnos a Jesús, que es la piedra viva. La Iglesia es el Pueblo de Dios, donde todos seguimos el camino que Jesús nos indicó.

Mensaje de Pascua y Bendición Urbi et Orbi 2023 del Papa Francisco

Ayuda a Myanmar a recorrer caminos de paz e ilumina los corazones de los responsables para que los martirizados RohRohinyá encuentren justicia.

Conforta a los refugiados, a los deportados, a los prisioneros políticos y a los migrantes, especialmente a los más vulnerables, así como a todos aquellos que sufren a causa del hambre, la pobreza y los nefastos efectos del narcotráfico, la trata de personas y toda forma de esclavitud. Inspira, Señor, a los responsables de las naciones, para que ningún hombre o mujer sea discriminado y pisoteado en su dignidad; para que en el pleno respeto de los derechos humanos y de la democracia se sanen esas heridas sociales, se busque siempre y solamente el bien común de los ciudadanos, se garantice la seguridad y las condiciones necesarias para el diálogo y la convivencia pacífica.

Hermanos, hermanas, encontremos también nosotros el gusto del camino, aceleremos el latido de la esperanza, saboreemos la belleza del cielo. Obtengamos hoy la fuerza para perseverar en el bien, hacia el encuentro del Bien que no defrauda. Y si, como escribió un Padre antiguo, "el mayor pecado es no creer en la fuerza de la Resurrección" (San Isaac de Nínive, Sermones ascéticos, I,5), hoy creemos y "sabemos que Cristo verdaderamente resucitó" (Secuencia de Pascua). Creemos en Ti, Señor Jesús, creemos que contigo la esperanza renace y el camino sigue. Tú, Señor de la vida, aliéntanos en nuestro caminar y repítenos, como a los discípulos la tarde de Pascua: "¡La paz esté con ustedes!" (Jn 20,19.21).

Carta Encíclica Evangelium Vitae del Sumo Pontífice Juan Pablo II a los Obispos a los Sacerdotes y Diáconos a los Religiosos a los Fieles Laicos y a todas las personas de buena voluntad sobre el valor y el carácter inviolable de la vida humana.

Capítulo III: No Matarás la Ley Santa de Dios « Yo doy la muerte y doy la vida » (Dt 32, 39): el drama de la eutanasia

La opción de la eutanasia es más grave cuando se configura como un homicidio que otros practican en una persona que no la pidió de ningún modo y que nunca dio su consentimiento. Se llega además al colmo del arbitrio y de la injusticia cuando algunos, médicos o legisladores, se arrojan el poder de decidir sobre quién debe vivir o morir. Así, se presenta de nuevo la tentación del Edén: ser como Dios « conocedores del bien y del mal » (Gn 3, 5). Sin embargo, sólo Dios tiene el poder sobre el morir y el vivir: « Yo doy la muerte y doy la vida » (Dt 32, 39; cf. 2 R 5, 7; 1 S 2, 6). El ejerce su poder siempre y sólo según su designio de sabiduría y de amor. Cuando el hombre usurpa este poder, dominado por una lógica de necesidad y de egoísmo, lo usa fatalmente para la injusticia y la muerte. De este modo, la vida del más débil queda en manos del más fuerte; se pierde el sentido de la justicia en la sociedad y se mina en su misma raíz la confianza recíproca, fundamento de toda relación auténtica entre las personas.
