The three Archangels [who] have important roles in the history of salvation.

Saint Michael is the "Prince of the Heavenly Host," the leader of all the angels. His name is Hebrew for "Who is like God?" and was the battle cry of the good angels against Lucifer and his followers when they rebelled against God. He is mentioned four times in the Bible, in Daniel 10 and 12, in the letter of Jude, and in Revelation.

Saint Gabriel, whose name means "God's strength," is mentioned four times in the Bible. Most significant are Gabriel's two mentions in the New Testament: to announce the birth of John the Baptist to his father Zacharias, and the at Incarnation of the Word in the womb of Mary.

Saint Raphael, whose name means "God has healed" because of his healing of Tobias' blindness in the Book of Tobit. Tobit is the only book in which he is mentioned. His office is generally accepted by tradition to be that of healing and acts of mercy.

MYSTERIUM FIDEI ENCYCLICAL OF POPE PAUL VI ON THE HOLY EUCHARIST

SEPTEMBER 3, 1965

Restoration of Liturgy Linked to Eucharistic Devotion

6. And so We earnestly hope that the restoration of the sacred liturgy will produce abundant fruits in the form of Eucharistic devotion, so that the Holy Church may, with this salvific sign of piety raised on high, make daily progress toward the full achievement of unity, (3) inviting all Christians to a unity of faith and love and drawing them to it gently, through the action of divine grace.

7. We seem to have a preview of these fruits and a first taste of them in the outpouring of joy and eagerness that has marked the reception the sons of the Catholic Church have accorded to the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy and to the restoration of the liturgy; and we find these fruits too in the large number of carefully-edited publications that make it their purpose to go into the doctrine of the Holy Eucharist more profoundly and to come to a more fruitful understanding of it, especially in terms of its relationship to the mystery of the Church.

8. All of this brings Us deep consolation and joy. And it gives Us great pleasure to inform you of this, Venerable Brothers, so that you may join with Us in giving thanks to God, the bestower of all gifts, who rules the Church and makes her grow in virtue through His Spirit.

THE INVITATION TO THE VINEYARD

I have been working since I was 17, and in that time, I've encountered my fair share of bosses who don't like being, well, fair. There was the retail gig that paid me less than the official minimum wage because I was a minor and scheduled me for long shifts because it meant cheaper labor. There was the restaurant manager who tried to convince me to leave seventh period early so I could waitress on a busy dinner shift (totally illegal, by the way). There was the unpaid internship with the editor who had no sense of work/life balance. Our resumes are all full of these experiences — it's capitalism, after all. It conditions us to look out for ourselves, because we know no one else will. And it breeds an attitude of suspicion that often blooms into jealousy when we encounter the reckless mercy of God. Most of us work hard for what we have in this life, and so we make the mistake of thinking we deserve the good things that come our way. That's all right and good when we're talking about a just wage. But sometimes we get our lines blurred and we begin to think we deserve, or have done something to earn, the salvation offered by Christ. I am not the laborer who has borne the heat of long hours in the sun. I am the straggler, the lost one, the idler at the marketplace as the day draws to a close. "As high as the heavens are above the earth, so high are my ways above your ways, and my thoughts above your thoughts."
— Is 55:9

25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME — Meditation —

Once I gave my three-year-old niece a certain toy for Christmas. When she opened it, she was happy. Shortly thereafter her five-year old sister opened another present from me: the same toy, along with some play jewelry. The three-year-old cried out: "That's not fair! Why'd she get the jewelry, too?!" Let's face it: there's something about God's grace in our religion which bugs us. We love to look at others' blessings and cry out: "That's not fair!" Catholicism is not fair in the sense that it is a religion founded on God's grace which is unmerited favor. God pours his mercy, love, and divine life upon us not because we're good but because He is infinitely good. If you think the "not fair" quality of grace is easy to accept, consider how typically angry we get when we hear the parable of the workers who get paid way more than they deserve. The hyper-generous landowner says to the indignant hard workers, "Are you envious because I am generous?" Well, yes, they are, and so are we! Therefore, we have to reckon with this painful truth in order to move into the divine sphere of gifts, which is the world of Christ and his Church. Then we are able to move beyond a tit-for-tat world and into one where gifts are poured forth on those who don't deserve it — namely, upon us.

CHAPTER ONE THE SACRAMENTS OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION

Article 1 THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

VI. The Necessity of Baptism

1258 The Church has always held the firm conviction that those who suffer death for the sake of the faith without having received Baptism are baptized by their death for and with Christ. This Baptism of blood, like the desire for Baptism, brings about the fruits of Baptism without being a sacrament.

1259 For catechumens who die before their Baptism, their explicit desire to receive it, together with repentance for their sins, and charity, assures them the salvation that they were not able to receive through the sacrament.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

Mt 20, 1-16

El Señor siempre es justo y es todo bondad. Esta es una invitación explícita para todos a trabajar en su Viña. Todos, sin excusa ni pretexto, a cualquier tiempo, se debe acudir y buscar obreros para la Viña. Ese es el Dios bueno y justo que nos presenta Jesús. Que paga lo mismo a todos sin discriminación ni egoísmos. Su bondad y generosidad no tienen medida. El reto es trabajar. Somos llamados en distintos momentos y circunstancias a servir en sus ministerios. Las parroquias buscan siempre servidores voluntarios honestos y bondadosos para servir. Hay muchas personas que han servido por años. Pero hay otras que están esperando un lugar para también trabajar con Jesús.

“Recordemos quien fue el primer santo canonizado en la Iglesia: el Buen ladrón. Robó el cielo en el último momento de su vida. Esto es la Gracia, así es Dios también con todos nosotros. El que piensa en sus propios méritos, fracasa; quien confía con humildad a la misericordia del Padre, pasa de último---como el Buen Ladrón---a primero (Papa Francisco (09/20/2020). “Así sucederá: los últimos serán primeros, y los primeros serán últimos” (Mateo 20:16). La pregunta es: ¿Tú qué haces para que el Reino de Dios crezca? Dejemos de quejarnos, y manos a la obra. Hay tantas personas que ofrecen su tiempo voluntario para ayudar y consolar siendo bondadosos. Gracias, Señor, por todas estas personas. Hay mucho que hacer. “La cosecha es abundante, pero los trabajadores pocos” (Mateo 9:37). ¡Vengan también ustedes a mi Viña!

¡Que el Señor premie su bondad!

III. LA EUCARISTÍA EN LA ECONOMÍA DE LA SALVACIÓN LOS SIGNOS DEL PAN Y DEL VINO

La institución de la Eucaristía

1340 Al celebrar la última Cena con sus Apóstoles en el transcurso del banquete pascual, Jesús dio su sentido definitivo a la pascua judía. En efecto, el paso de Jesús a su Padre por su muerte y su resurrección, la Pascua nueva, es anticipada en la Cena y celebrada en la Eucaristía que da cumplimiento a la pascua judía y anticipa la pascua final de la Iglesia en la gloria del Reino.

Carta Encíclica Evangelium Vitae del Sumo Pontífice Juan Pablo II a los Obispos, a los Sacerdotes y Diáconos, a los Religiosos, a los Fieles Laicos y a todas las personas de buena voluntad sobre el valor y el carácter inviolable de la vida humana.

74. La introducción de legislaciones injustas pone con frecuencia a los hombres moralmente rectos ante difíciles problemas de conciencia en materia de colaboración, debido a la obligatoria afirmación del propio derecho a no ser forzados a participar en acciones moralmente malas. A veces las opciones que se imponen son dolorosas y pueden exigir el sacrificio de posiciones profesionales consolidadas o la renuncia a perspectivas legítimas de avance en la carrera. En otros casos, puede suceder que el cumplimiento de algunas acciones en sí mismas indiferentes, o incluso positivas, previstas en el articulado de legislaciones globalmente injustas, permita la salvaguarda de vidas humanas amenazadas. Por otra parte, sin embargo, se puede temer justamente que la disponibilidad a cumplir tales acciones no sólo conlleve escándalo y favorezca el debilitamiento de la necesaria oposición a los atentados contra la vida, sino que lleve insensiblemente a ir cediendo cada vez más a una lógica permisiva.
